Father Mark Kelleher and Richard Mitchell on October 16, 2018 at 6:30 p.m. at Holy Family Church.

The evening is designed as an opportunity for enrichment and will be geared toward those who proclaim the word of God.

Am I deeply imbued with the spirit of the liturgy? Does my ministry change the way I engage with others in my family or workplace? Am I building up the Body of Christ as I proclaim God's word? Do I read authentically? Do I engage the entire assembly when I read the word? Do I read or proclaim?

Please attend this wonderful night of renewal.

Parish News and Diocesan News

Thanks everyone for your support of our recent Tootsie Roll drive at various shopping centers over the past few weekends. Thanks also to the Knights for volunteering their time to make this a success.

Your donations go towards helping the Delaware Special Olympics and the Delaware Foundation Reaching Citizens.

The Knights have long placed a special emphasis on programs to benefit people with intellectual disabilities, and over the past decade alone we have donated more than $1 billion and provided nearly 594 million hours of community service to them and countless others in need.

Membership in the Knights of Columbus is open to all men 18 years of age or older who are practicing Catholics in union with the Holy See. We value ethnic diversity! Different points of view lead to new ways of thinking. Won't you join us? You'll be glad you did.

To become a Knight, contact Tony Malafronti (302) 530-1016 or Joel Watson (302) 373-6617 or online at: <https://www.kofc.org/apps/newjoin/en/registration/index.html>
